

A LADY WITH A LAMP

BIBLE TEXT --Psalms

Poem by Len Haas/ McKAIN

I have ordained a lamp for mine anointed.
Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet- -
And a light unto my path.- -
A lady walked through the wilderness,
And she carried a lamp in her hand- -
Then out of the darkness,
There came a throng;
And followed the silvery strand--
She was crowned with courage, and walked with grace, Nor feared she the tempest's might- -
She restored the Christ Truth to the human race, With the light of her lamp so bright.- -
That Light, two thousand years ago
Jesus promised would shine again
It was spoken of as the Comforter,
And the promise was not in vain- -
It found its way to an open heart,
Now it shines in every land- -
For a lady walked through the wilderness,
And she carried a lamp in her hand- -
For a lady walked through the wilderness,
And she carried a lamp in her hand.
God placed the lamp, In her worthy hand,
For He found her willing to go,
Out in the dreary wilderness,
To brighten the paths of woe.
O God, the Giver of perfect gifts,
In gratitude we stand- -
For the lady who walked through the wilderness,
And carried a lamp in her hand- -
Thy Word was a lamp unto her feet- -
Thy Word was a light unto her path- -
And the "Lady with the lamp shall stand- -
In the great history of the land."
